Thomas Lloyd Williams

FEB 26, 1943 - MAY 12, 2019

Williams-Thomas Lloyd, 76, of Hayward, passed away peacefully on May 12, 2019. Thomas was born February 26, 1943 in Hayward, California and was the son of Walter and Verbal (Mann) Williams. He went to Hayward High School and lived in Hayward all his life. His passions were working on his trucks, cars, and motorcycles. He loved watching NASCAR and cheering on Dale Earnhardt. He loved being around his family and friends. He was a down to earth type of guy. His sense of humor and love of life will be greatly missed. Thomas began working at PG&E in April 1962 and retired as a crane operator in February 2005. He loved his job of 43 years. His retirement years were slowed down due to his Parkinson's Disease. The family, along with many friends, has lost a wonderful human being. His smile and charming ways can never be replaced. Thomas was one of a kind. Those who will miss Thomas the most include his son, Michael and his wife Julie, and his daughters-Jayne Lopez and her husband John, and Jennifer Gitlin and her husband Danny, sister Susan Miller, brothers Rodger and his wife Sharon, Bob and his wife Raylene, Dick and Bill, three grandsons, a granddaughter, great-grandchildren, nephews and nieces, and a host of close friends. He was reunited in Heaven with his parents. Service to celebrate Thomas's life will be held in the Chapel of the Chimes Funeral Home on Thursday, May 23, 2019 at 10:30am.
