

Arvind Bhatti

OCT 13, 1965 - SEP 1, 2018

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Tribute Wall	Page 3
---------------------------	--------

Tribute Wall

Arvind Bhatti

OCT 13, 1965 - SEP 1, 2018

SB

S Bhatnagar posted:

I recently came across your lose. I tried to get information without any success. "I can not express how much Arvind meant to me over the years. He always brought so much light into the lives of those around him." I have known Arvind Bhatti since 1977 in Kenya, he was my junior. We went to the same school, then lost contact. We caught up with each other while I was in New York. It is a tragedy to lose such a lovable person. "Such a strong man will never truly be gone, for he has left such a loving presence in our hearts."

November 6 at 7:54 AM

JO

Joshi posted:

While turning the leaves of memories in search of lost time, alas, I am deeply shocked and saddened to learn just a day before yesterday (15 September 2019) the unbelievable tragedy to such a loveable boy – almost a year ago. I still can't understand how the cruel hands of the destiny could snatch such a gentle soul whom I come to know in the year 1977-78 in Kenya when he was only twelve years old. I pray to the Almighty to rest his soul in peace and give strength to his near and dear ones to bear this unrepairable loss. "Alas, poor world, what treasure hast thou lost, What face remains alive that's worth the viewing? Whose tongue is music now? What canst thou boast Of things long since, or anything ensuing? The flowers are sweet, their colours fresh and trim; But true sweet beauty lived and died with him." JOSHI

September 15 at 5:49 PM

MS

Manjula Singh posted:

Dear arvind, We all met at my son's wedding for the 2nd time in 36 yr after my marriage. U were a kid at that time. But u gave us a shock by leaving this world for ever at such early age rip. Could not digest this bad news given by sunita. We all pray to almighty for yr soul to RIP. ??

September 13 at 3:27 AM

Tribute Wall

Arvind Bhatti

OCT 13, 1965 - SEP 1, 2018

SB

Sunita Bhatti posted:

My Dear Brother Arvind, I know you are resting in PEACE, and are dispersing your contagious smiles, your positive energy and your words of motivation to your new family in HEAVEN. While GOD has welcomed you with open arms in your new home, we here are missing you and are still trying to come to terms with this irrecoverable LOSS. I have gone through all emotions of grief starting with the anger of unfairly losing my brother – but I realize now that it is GOD's decision, he needed someone like you in heaven to maintain the heavenly atmosphere. You are at peace now, that is the only consolation I have that explains this – there is no other answer. No longer do I receive text messages or phone calls from you, I do not have to give a quick response to you that all is OK/I am fine will call you back and I do not hear your voice – “just checking on you, no rush”. I did not realize ever that just this alone would drive a million tears down my cheeks one day. You have been a loving and caring brother, a loving father, a loving uncle, a genuine caring friend to many, a very caring and respecting husband and very respectful to the women you interacted with – and I say all this not just because you are my brother, but because I have seen your interaction with others and I am hearing all this about you. I have so many fond memories of all the times we spent together growing up in the same home as kids and beyond. While I can try to get through each day with those memories, I struggle to not have you part of my life any more. One thing that I appreciate most about you was that you would constantly remind me of what you appreciated in life and were thankful for – now, your those very words fill my heart that your life may have been short but you fulfilled your purpose for everyone around you. You kept up with your routine and positive energy even through the difficult times – you believed in the importance of things that matter in life and understood what really brings happiness and joy in life, for that I am so proud of you dear brother. That made me feel at times you were my elder brother. You continue to inspire me everyday and look at the bigger picture of life. I love you and miss you so much.

September 6 at 2:48 AM

MS

Meenakshi Sharma posted:

My Dearest Brother – I Loved you Dearly and will ALWAYS do. Your beautiful life is cut short and you have left your dear ones in so much pain. You were full of life, loved life, were hard working, sensitive and caring. You had a great passion for Music and while a person of few words conveyed your messages referring to song so here dear brother How am I Supposed to Live Without you (Michael Bolton). You rang me one day and said listen to “Wake Me Up”. How do I wake you up now!! You daughter will always remember “Glory of Love”. What am I do to with “Broken Wings”. “Against All Odds (Take a Look at Me Now)”, “If Ever You’re In My Arms Again”, “Right Here Waiting”. Love you My Dear Arvind. RIP

September 10 at 10:18 AM

Tribute Wall

Arvind Bhatti

OCT 13, 1965 - SEP 1, 2018

HR

Haseeb & Rizwana posted:

Arvind – You left the world too early. You were a loving brother to your sisters Sunita and Meena, a loving husband to Sandy and great dad to Keera. Rest In Peace!

September 8 at 12:20 PM

DE

Deepa posted:

This is unbelievable and I pray god to give strength to whole family. Aravind, I know you as Sunita's brother, since I have met Sunita, there was no single time in our conversation she forgets to talk about you. The times I have met you, I have noticed you as a lovable brother, unconditional loving uncle to Vikram, great spouse to Sandra and above all a greatest dad to your daughter. I plead the almighty to give strength to Sunita, Sandra, Vikram, your daughter, Meena and your whole family to face this tough situation. RIP Aravind.

September 6 at 2:48 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Arvind by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

