Rency S. Galamay

APR 28, 2018

Rency was born April 26, 1971 at Mary's Help Hospital, currently known as Seton Medical Center in Daly City. In the past years he remained at home in Union City. He worked as a dedicated tow truck driver and operator. He loved his job that many times he would miss special events and occasions with the family due to early work hours and lengthy work schedule. He took pride in his work and his family was proud. Rency enjoyed eating, cooking, watching cartoons, listening to loud music while driving in his car, gambling, and spending time with his family when his work would permit it. He had a giving heart and a humorous soul. Rency is survived by three children: Jazmine, Ray and Jayleen; three grandchildren: Ryder, Rachel and Roman; his parents Leny and Florencio along with his four sisters and their spouses: Frances & Steve, Michelle & Joe, Christiane & Zonui and Venessa & Ruben and their children—his nieces and nephews which he loved dearly and as his own: Steven, Francine, Alexis, Milo, Joe Francisco, Lissette, Diego, Josephine, Angelo, Angelina, Yzavella, Victoria, Callista.

Dearest Cousin, You will forever be remembered for your big kind heart and sense of humor! We can never prepare ourselves for loss, we never thought this day would come so soon and although we'll never hear your infectious laugh or feel your warm embrace; we know for sure you're in a peaceful place. Rest easy, you are forever loved.
