FERDINAND ROQUE AGONCILLO

MAR 11, 1965 - APR 3, 2018

Ferdinand R. Agoncillo March 11, 1965 – April 3, 2018 It all started in the land of destiny. A man was born with unique abilities. He can raise you up in the time of shallow. Slow you down if you're going too fast, faster than a shadow. The only one and only man who can make anyone happy, In his own way, the best way. A cook, a hardworker, a perfect father and a loving husband. The inspiration, the motivation, the engineer, the atmosphere, the best mathematician. It would take a whole notebook to describe him. That scent of him will remain, Like a blackberry molasses, it would never change. We thank him for every single dream. But now the time has come him. He will be peacefully hibernating in the place of nirvana, in heaven. Ferdinand "Jiggs" Agoncillo, passed away on Tuesday, April 2, 2018 at St. Rose Hospital Hayward, California. He was born March 11, 1965 to Danilo and Erlinda Agoncilo in the Philippines. He married Fe Agoncillo and was blessed with four wonderful children. Survivors include his wife Fe; his 3 daughters, Camille, Charmaine, Carla and son Carl; 3 sisters Malou, Fatima and Sheila; 1 brother Dennis; and mother Erlinda as well as many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
