Lolita Nonan

APR 14, 1941 - NOV 28, 2017

Lolita Perez Nonan was born in the small province of Naguilian, La Union, Philippines on April 14, 1941. Had birthed a son, Fulgencio Perez Jr., and followed her dreams to becoming a nurse. After spending the majority of her career in London, she then married Basilio Nonan Sr. in 1979 and has then been part of the Nonan family ever since. Lolita was kind, soft spoken, and always greeted everyone with a warm smile. Independent from the start, but always appreciated anyone's company or invite to family parties. Lolita will forever be remembered as a wonderful neighbor, as a tender friend, as a kind mother, and as a caring grandmother. Her journey to the heavenly gates began on November 28, 2017. May her body & soul be laid to rest with those she holds dearest to her heart who have gone before her, and that she finds her place right beside our Heavenly Father. You will forever be loved and missed, Auntie Loling.
