She always put others first and went above and beyond for her family. She was always smiling, joking, and lived with a positive attitude and outlook on life. She enjoyed going to the gift stores with her husband Richard, spending time with her family, bbq-ing, road trips to Mexico and camping. She was a blessing to everyone whom she came into contact with. She was adored by all who she knew, especially her husband. She will truly be missed by her family and all who knew her.

I ran into this on google. Miss you so much every single day my GRAMMY Rosie! Even your kisses that would leave?? the imprint of your lips on my cheek from your red or purple (our favorite color) lipstick & I'd say "Aw Grammy now my cheeks all sticky". I miss waking up from a nightmare and knocking on your door and you'd let me sleep in your big comfy bed with you but, pray with me so I wasn't afraid to go back to sleep & I'd watch Golden Girls or Beverly Hillbillies with you until I fell asleep again. I miss you driving me to school in the morning & we'd always stop and eat breakfast from Jack In The Box First. I miss you coming home from the thrift store and greeting me with a surprise. I miss the talks we'd have and how if I was crying and said I didn't wanna talk you would insist until I told you what was bothering me because, you never failed to put the smile back on my face after and I always felt refreshed. I miss the way you love my babies and how you were there for me through my pregnancies and always got them a coming home outfit from the hospital along with a comfy robe, slippers, pajamas and a meal for me because, I didn't like the hospital food. I can go on and on I miss having someone I can always count on truly the best grandma everrrrrr!! I will always remember our memories and everything you taught me. Oh and I miss arguing over who loved each other more. I LOVE YOU MORE, MOST, MOSTEST, HOSTESS TOASTES!

My deepest sympathy to all of the family. I have known Rosie for many years and we ended losing contact over so many years. I feel blessed that we both connected back together. God Bless each one of you and remember she leaves a huge piece of cherished memories to each one of us in our hearts.

Rosie Just wanted to say thanks for being my big sister and for all the wonderful times we shared together. The laughter the games we played while growing up (hide and seek freeze tag) and the time we were in the back yard at the house on Fuller when it was me and you against David having a water hose battle and using sheets of plastic to shield ourselves that was so much fun and the time when we thru fire crackers into the car that past by with its windows down on the fourth of July and we all ran and they stopped and just wanted to know if we had any for sale lol. Oh what fun it was. I will miss you my big sister and I will never forget you Rosie. I am so sorry this had to happen to you and I know you were not ready to leave but we will be together again someday until then I love you Rosie . your little brother Ruly
