Max was a very loving a caring man. Since I met him and eventually Married into the family he has always treated me with respect. When I asked for his permission to marry Lorena he said yes under one condition, he would walk her down the aisle, no problem I said. We would talk about our duties we had in the US Navy. It was great to hear about service. I had a good time taking him to his first Professional Football game. I took him to see the Raiders in my friends seats. He enjoyed looking at the Raiderettes. I always told him if he ever needed anything it was done for him and Emma no questions asked. I will miss him very much##imported-begin##Jack Varrella##imported-end##
