I may not have ever met yu but maybe I have. Steven was a friend of ours, I met Debra once and since Steves' passing we have gotten to know each other a bit. I hope this forum will help you get in touch with some of the people appreciated him. I always called you "WILD BILLY" You were a Nut. Peter and I met you and Peggy 30 years ago and you and Peter became fast friends. And then I can remember as if it just happened, Peggy and I became jointed at the hip. Loving to cook and eat and party together when we were young. Peggy and I would always come up with something to surprise you and Pete, Like a surprise party for Pete's 25th birthday and her and I making a cake representing one quarter of a century old. And you Bill saying huh, huh Deb, got some booze, Don't tell Peggy. You Silly man. I have so many memories of those days. Be at peace Bill, and enjoy Steven, My Son until I join you. Teach him to Surf, and He will show you how to catch those stinky cat fish with that stinky bait. I Love you Billy, R.I.P. Your Sister in Christ, Deb xoxo##imported-begin##Debra Mestas##imported-end##
