

Jean Pytlik-Holyoake

MAY 29, 1960 - FEB 5, 2011

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary .....	Page 3
Tribute Wall .....	Page 4

Jean Pytlik-Holyoake

MAY 29, 1960 - FEB 5, 2011

Jean was born on May 29, 1960 and passed away on Saturday, February 5, 2011. Jean was a resident of Castro Valley, California.

Tribute Wall

Jean Pytlik-Holyoake

MAY 29, 1960 - FEB 5, 2011

CH

Chapel Of The Chimes Hayward posted:

Jean was ever optimistic and a dedicated wife and teacher. I had the blessing and privilege of getting to know her and her husband John in our group bible study. She always had a genuine smile for everyone and her strong faith in Jesus and her love for John were obvious. She persevered greatly through her illness and other challenges in life, but I never heard her complain. Not sure why the Lord chooses to take such good people from us so young, but he surely got a keeper! I am so glad she is now receiving the reward for her love of Christ and her faithful walk with him in all things. Miss you lots, Jean!Steve##imported-begin##Steve Irvin##imported-end##

March 18 at 5:00 PM

CH

Chapel Of The Chimes Hayward posted:

Goodbye my sweet cousin. May you have eternal peace and happiness. May God bless your soul forever.##imported-begin##Jeffery Springfield##imported-end##

February 20 at 5:00 PM

CH

Chapel Of The Chimes Hayward posted:

I knew Jean through church as well as through work about 25 years ago. I enjoyed many a conversation over lunch with her. She always had a big smile on her face! Very sad about this loss.##imported-begin##Adrienne Washney##imported-end##

February 16 at 5:00 PM

CH

Chapel Of The Chimes Hayward posted:

Although we were not close, I always picture Jean as upbeat, sincere, kind, friendly. With all the pain she suffered, she never complained, just went on smiling. I am sure she is with Jesus now.##imported-begin##Jeanne Hassenzahl##imported-end##

February 15 at 5:00 PM

CH

Chapel Of The Chimes Hayward posted:

Memories that I have will never go away. I just love Jean and I am really sad she isn't here with us any more, I am here to light a candle for her to let her know that I love her and I will always remember her forever!##imported-begin##Debbie Richardson##imported-end##

February 12 at 5:00 PM

Chapel Of The Chimes Hayward posted:

My memories of Jean are beautiful, she had a smile on her that would make you smile back. Jean was a very caring person always thinking of others then her self. She cared about her self and took great care of her self. Its just those small things that turn into big surprises from Jean. As I got closer to Jean and as the years passed I got the opportunity to grow with her. Her accomplishments her disappointments when she was sad and when she was happy I was the one she would call and we would talk for hours on the phone or meet up at her favorite place "Star bucks" coffee shop. I love the late hours conversations, we would call each other in the late hours about 11 pm chat until wee hours, sometimes just to talk. I just love that part of our friendship the phone conversations. Jean's relationship with my kids were just as awesome too, Ryan was very protective over Jean in many ways and Jennifer just loved Jean, who couldn't. Jean's very caring damner spread like a wild fire once your lit you have to follow her. And Jean's loving care about her husband John she did so many things for him, I don't think he knew what she did before she left for her treatments down south, Jean was always worried that John wasn't being taken care of so that was her first plan of action "take care of her husband" Jean's faith in God was awesome her views, her beliefs and what she did with it, She followed Christ words in the Bible, Jean took every step with God and believed in everything God said. I loved to make her laugh, when she was upset and when she cried I held her tight and told her God is with you and I am here to help you. I can't imagine how scared she was to find out that she was diagnosed with ovarian cancer. I felt really sad when I heard that news. Jean took action right away she had a hysterectomy and thought we had got rid of it all, but we did not. There is a lot more to the story but I just thought I would share a little bit of an awesome women that I had the pleasure of knowing. My Best friend, my sister and my sister in Christ.##imported-begin##Debbie Richardson##imported-end##

February 12 at 5:00 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Jean by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

