Lynn was my first love. She was 18 and I was 20, and we met through friends in Hayward. She was always a beautiful fun loving, kind, compassionate and fiery woman. We dated for quite some time but sadly ended up separating a few years later. Lynn was always on my mind and in my heart, and I'm saddened to know she's gone forever. Her beautify spirit will live on forever. My she rest in peace with her loving husband, Mother and Father.God bless you Lynn.....:- (

I grew up with Lynn & the family at a very young age. She was a sweet, loving little girl that matured into a beautiful woman, wife and mother with the kindest soul and heart. You will be sincerely be missed, but knowing you're with your mom, daughter, Rachel, and God gives some comfort. I love you Lynn. Rest in peace my sweet girl. ❤️🙏
