Sandra L. Chaves

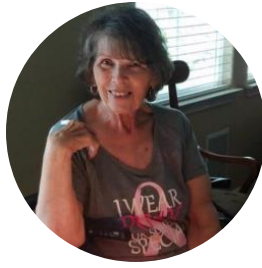

SEP 27, 1940 - NOV 15, 2021

Our mother, Sandy Chaves passed away on Nov, 15th 2021 at home with her family.

Preceded in death by our father and her husband Donald “Duke” Chaves who passed away in 1973.

Sandy is survived by her daughter Cynthia Giuliano, son-in-law Anthony Giuliano, and her son, Donald “Duke” Chaves. Her beloved grandchildren, Alexis Chaves, AJ Giuliano, Cassandra Giuliano, Dominic Giuliano and Great Grandchildren Angelo Ortiz and Aleena Ortiz. Sandy’s grandchildren meant the world to her. She would always be available to babysit and help in any way that she could.

As a single parent our mother did everything for us. Despite a full-time job she always made time for Dukes hockey games and to drive him to hot spots like Fresno and Visalia for games. Many times, she white knuckled it driving in the heavy tule fog. She always made sure I got to the ice rink for my practices at 4:30 in the morning and on time for all my competitions.

Our mother Sandy never remarried and put us and her grandchildren before herself and her own health.

As a family we enjoyed many trips to South Lake Tahoe, and Hawaii. Mom’s favorite thing to do was to go gambling and play the slot machines.

Mom started working at Superior Tile in Oakland in 1976 and then went to Inter Tile in San Jose. Eventually came back to Superior Tile and retired in Oct. 2008. Mom was devoted employee and worked many long hours and worked for the company for 32 years. After mom retired, she began to have health issues. She had bouts with breast cancer and kidney cancer, and then started having problems walking and moving around. In Sept of this year shortly after her 81st birthday we were informed cancer had come back and this time she just wasn't strong enough to fight the cancer.

In lieu of flowers the family would like you to donate to your favorite charity in Sandy's memory

Deepest condolences to the entire family. I was a neighbor of Sandie's for many years and my son, Bobbie is still good friends with Duke. I'm sure Sandie will be truly missed by family, friends and people she touched throughout her life. May she rest in peace and her sufferings are now gone. She may be gone but your memories of her will last forever. Bernice Pelicas

I remember the wonderful conversations I would get to have with Sandy on Christmas Day. She was always such an inspiration to me! All that she had been through and having fought Cancer more than once she was still positive and enjoyed life. I know her family will miss her greatly as will those who knew and loved her. I'll be praying for the family as they morn their lose.
