Loreta Shauf

NOV 17, 1922 - FEB 23, 2022

Loreta Sibal Shauf passed away peacefully in her sleep to reunite with her husband, Norman Manuson Shauf (July 4, 1921-March 25, 1989) on February 23, 2022.

Loreta was born to the late Bruno Megia Sibal and Hermogena Manipon, a morse code translator and homemaker, in Bamban, Tarlac, Philippines on November 17, 1922. Loreta was the middle of six siblings, Benjamin, a doctor born 1918; Wilson, an electrical engineer born 1920; Loreta, a school teacher; Robert, a chemist born 1924; Luz, a school teacher born 1926 and Nonoy a chemist born 1929. Loreta attended The University of Santo Tomas Catholic School in Home Economics.

Loreta at 16 years old, grew up quickly to manage the family when her mother died due to hemorrhaging. She was known to be the fastest runner in her baseball team. She loved to dance the boogie woogie, jitterbug and rumba tango.

She taught 2nd grade students how to read English at Bamban Elementary School, but the Japanese didn't like her because of this subject so she stopped teaching English and soon married Norman and moved to the mountains to get away from the Japanese.

Loreta raised four children, Evelyn born 1946, Jennie born 1949, Susan born 1952 and Norman born in the United States 1961. She lost their first child when she was seven months along because she contracted malaria and was given quinine.

Loreta was very independent, for example when she was learning to drive, because Norman and her would argue while learning to drive so she would get up at midnight and drive alone to teach herself how to drive. Loreta stood up for herself and was known to be a strong opinionated woman.

Loreta was known to cling to her purse every where and would hear her say constantly "Where's my bag". Loreta also cared for her children and always made sure they had plenty to eat and would generously give food to take home. One of her famous words are "Did you eat?", "You better drink milk!". She also protected them from the evil world, by overly restricting them from the freedom to find adventure on their own.

Loreta was a good cook. She loved to make Palabok, Paksiw, Adobo, and Diniguan as her favorite meal with plenty of rice as she describes it.

Loreta was hired by the Social Security Administration because she was a fast typist because she played the piano at a young age along with her siblings that also played piano at home. After she retired from SSA, she and Norman moved to Sun Valley, NV and worked at Cal-Neva Casino.

My Aunt Loreta was this fun, funny, loving, and caring relative. I remember when we visited her many years ago and I believe it was Reno. She had taken me to a drug store to buy an inhaler because back then I had suffered chronic asthma. I used to pick her up from Alameda and take her with us to Bambanense. There were times when we just hang out with her at her home in Alameda. When my Godmother, Aunt Fili was here we all went out to have early dinner at Benihana in Burlingame. I have not seen her awhile and "oh brother", I really do miss her beautiful face and her joyous voice, she's such a crack up. It's really time to reunite with Uncle Nonong and now she's in better hands with our Heavenly Father. Live you Aunty 😊

I can still vividly recall decades ago when Auntie Luring together with Uncle Norman Shauf paid us a visit in our apartment in Kamuning Quezon City. Both were so vibrant and energetic. No dull moments when you are with the couple. Their laughter are infectious!!! May the merciful love of our Lord open the gates of heaven and allow Auntie Luring to rest in eternal peace. Our condolences to the bereaved family. Love and prayers from the Penalosa Family

Liberty, Thank you so much for sharing your sweet memories of Loreta and so glad you spent time with her with Aunt Fili. Yes, one of her favorite sayings were "oh brother", or "oh boy". Love you too!
