I have known Henry my whole life. He is my cousin. He was such a sweet and kind person. He was always devoted to family. He took care of his Mom and his Dad. They traveled a lot to various places Australia and a trip around all the states. Being born in Hawaii they all made many trips there. He was a good looking man that loved my girls. They all were very close. Henry was so generous. He missed the Vietnam War by just getting out in time of the Army. He was on our last family's camping trip and we had good eats and a lot of precious memories. He will be greatly missed and thought of so often. It hurts my heart to know he has gone home. I'm sure they were all glad to see him on his arrival home but I sure wish we had more time with him here. Love You Henry! Miss You!

Where do I even begin...It's so hard to write this, because I thought you'd always be here. My favorite memory of you is all of them! Holidays, Birthdays, camping, Disney, Winchester house, Santa Cruz, all of them! I hope you know that you were like a second Dad to me. I could tell you anything, and you always kept my secrets. I love you, Henry and miss you so much already. It's not right here without you. Visit me in my dreams. Love, Lisa Bug
