Hoda Srour

JUL 18, 1939 - DEC 29, 2023

Hoda Saikaly Srour, 84 of Fremont, California; a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, entered eternal life on December 29th, 2023. She was born on July 18, 1939 in Zahle, Lebanon to parents: Aziz Saikaly and Widad Ghossain.

In 1960, she married her beloved husband, Edward Srour, and together they embarked on a journey of love and togetherness that spanned over five decades. She and Edward were blessed with six beautiful children, whose lives were enriched by their mother's unwavering love and support. Hoda's dedication to her family was immeasurable, and she found great fulfillment in nurturing and caring for her loved ones.

Hoda's passion for cooking was legendary. She had a natural talent for creating mouthwatering dishes that delighted the palates of all who had the pleasure of tasting her Lebanese delicacies. Her kitchen was a place of warmth and comfort, where family and friends gathered to share in her culinary creations. Hoda's love for cooking extended beyond her immediate family, as she never met a person she didn't want to feed. Her generous spirit and delicious meals brought people together, fostering a sense of community wherever she went.

In 1987, Hoda relocated to California, where she immersed herself in learning English and adapting to her new surroundings. Throughout the years, Hoda played an integral role in her children's lives, helping them establish successful careers and watching them build families of their own. Hoda's love and guidance extended to her nine cherished grandchildren and one great grandchild, whom she adored and helped raise.

Hoda Srour's memory will forever be etched in our hearts. Her love of family, passion for cooking, and selflessness will continue to inspire us all.

Though she may no longer be with us in person, her spirit lives on through the love she shared and the recipes she left behind. Hoda's legacy is one of love, resilience, and the power of bringing
