A Life of Kindness: Remembering Mohinder Singh Mahi June 6th, 1942 - May 12th, 2025

Born on June 6th, 1942, in India, Mohinder Singh Mahi lived a life deeply rooted in Sikh values and teachings. His unwavering faith guided him through every step of his journey, instilling in him the virtues of humility, hard work, kindness, and support for others. A devoted husband to Joginder Mahi Kaur, their life together was a testament to love and companionship.

After graduating from high school, Mohinder's journey was one of hard work and dedication. For 40 years, he pursued his passion in the automotive industry, becoming a trusted mechanic whose diligence and humble spirit earned the respect of many.

His kind heart and supportive nature touched everyone around him. Whether offering a helping hand or a listening ear, Mohinder embodied the true spirit of generosity. His humble demeanor and strong work ethic inspired us all to be better.

On May 12th, 2025, in Fremont, CA, Mohinder's gentle soul found rest. Though he is no longer with us, the kindness and love he shared will forever remain in our hearts. We will always cherish the memories of his warm smile and the joy he brought into our lives.

May we honor his legacy by carrying his kindness forward.
