Hosseinali Makvandi

JUN 25, 1935 - JUN 22, 2025

With heavy hearts, we bid farewell to Hosseinali Makvandi, a devoted husband, cherished scholar, and lifelong educator, who passed away peacefully just three days before his 90th birthday.

Born in 1935, Hosseinali pursued a Master's degree in Literature and dedicated over 30 years to teaching poetry and literature. As a professor, he wasn't just an expert in his field—he was a passionate guide to generations of students, awakening in them a love for language and the profound beauty of the written word.

Hosseinali shared nearly 60 years of marriage with his beloved wife, Kicya, a union built on partnership, warmth, and mutual respect. Their love story stands as a testament to enduring commitment and companionship through the decades.

He will be remembered for his gentle demeanor, luminous intellect, and the quiet inspiration he offered to all who knew him. His legacy continues in the lessons he taught, the minds he shaped, and the lives he touched.

May his memory be a source of comfort and pride, and may the pages of his life continue to inspire.
