“ I last saw Cletis in 2016 at Chris’ graduation. He was the proud papa bursting at the seams. We met at U Penn when he began dating Lurdys and became part of our roommate circle. From Philly, they went to Connecticut and then came to NYC. I will remember our good times on both the East and West Coasts. Cletis’ fluency in Spanish always impressed me. That was followed by his sense of humor and easygoing nature. Condolences to the Shelby family and friends who were touched by Cletis’ presence.

“ We celebrate the life of our dear friend Cletis, and 30 years of memories. We celebrate his son, Chris - he was so proud of you and always wanted the best for you.
Cletis was so many things....he was special...he will always be in our hearts.
Sending our deepest condolences to the entire family.

“ I wanted to send my deepest condolences to chis and the rest of the family in this time of grief. Cletus was a really cool guy. We had fun every time we were around him. Y’all all know he can talk. Lol so between him and Toby there was plenty of entertainment. I know you will be missed by friends and family. I’m so glad I had the pleasure of meeting you Cletus and being in your company. Great guy gone too soon. Take care family continued prayers.
