“ Even though a certain someone did everything in her power to alienate your children from you. you never let it happen. I forgive this person and I forgive this person because I love you so much. I forgive this person for you Dad. There is no doubt in our minds how much you loved us because we sure loved you. You now hold all the keys of the secrets left behind. No more unanswered questions no more feelings of hurt. It's all peace love and wonderful memories. I have no regrets and I know you don't either not when it comes to our relationship. I never could have imagined how hard it would be living without you. It is HARD. You are my beloved precious father. I will see you again. Mother gets to have you to herself for a little while any way so enjoy it all until we meet again. You have a lot of catching up to do with your lived ones. I know you are in a place filled with love and light. My heart is at ease. I have no regrets. Just pure love and wonderful memories you left behind. I love you Daddy
