“ I miss you so much. I wish I could talk to you and laugh with you and hold your hand just one more time. I finally passed the last test for investments yesterday. You watched me struggle and fail and finally overcome and you were my biggest cheerleader. I love you for that. I was so sad that I couldn't call you or come home to share my accomplishment with you. I think I finally realized you aren't "here" anymore. Thank you for all your love and support and I will still be striving for that RV so I can take you with me as we travel the states like we talked about. I love you Mom. Thank you for being my mom. xoxo

“ Glimmia was a true friend, through thick and thin. Some of my best memories are of walking the Golden Gate Bridge together and spending time in her garden. Rest in peace my dear friend! You will forever be in my thoughts.

“ I met Glimmia when her daughter Laura was still in high school, so many, many years ago. They were neighbors and I saw her often outside her home. My best memories of her is her warm, welcoming smile and ready laugh. She always carried a sparkle in her eyes. It felt as if she had wonderful secrets she wasn't sharing and you always wanted to get close to her to see if you could find them out. In my opinion her secrets were to live life to the fullest, enjoy all the moments and love in an extraordinary way. She lived by those secrets to the fullest. I'll miss her although I see her in her daughter Laura which is a wonderful thing. Glimma, you've the universe to play in now! Go dance amongst the stars!
