

James Hunter

September 23, 1957 - March 29, 2020

James V. Hunter—“Jim” to his family and friends—was born in Rexburg, Idaho, on September 23rd, 1957, and passed away unexpectedly, but peacefully, on Sunday, March 29th, 2020, in California.

Jim will always be remembered for the kindness and compassion he so willingly extended to others.

Jim’s father was killed when he was young, leaving he and his family to struggle emotionally and financially.

Jim and his brothers went to work at young ages to help support the family.

He rose above his challenges through sheer hard work and determination. As a young man in high school, there was no one more respected and admired as Jim in his little community.

Jim married Sukuei Cheng on March. 6th.2003

He has been a great life tutor and partner to her.

Jim had a passionate love for computer science and engineering—a passion which led him into very successful career in the field of high-tech cyber-security. Well beyond the many awards and recognitions he received in this field, Jim valued most of all his friends—both old and new—who invited him over, yes, to help them with their computers, but even more because of the warmth of his heart

Jim enjoyed dance music, squash, dinosaur’s history and he was a fan of Sharks Hockey team.

He was not only the best uncle to the kids but the fun person to play with. Jim will always be remembered for the way he touched and treated everyone with his gentle kindness, and his generous, warm heart. Within Jim’s reach no one would cry alone—not even the stranger on the street.

It has been said that the only way to take the sorrow out of the death of a loved one would be to take the love out of life. Our tears for Jim today stand as a testimony of the love we shared with him—and how much he will be missed—missed especially by his sweet wife, SuKuei, by his family, and by nieces and nephews whose lives Jim enriched with his love

Jim will find rest and peace in a land that he loved—Taiwan
