

Juanita (Jennie) Briones Aragon

February 8, 1922 - April 4, 2020

Our Beloved Mother, Jennie, passed as softly and gently as the Beautiful person She was. She was pre-deceased by her loving and witty Husband, Fares E. Aragon in 1989.

She is survived by her Son, Joeseph C. Aragon 73, and her Daughter, Linda K. Aragon 68, and her only surviving sibling, her Brother, Hank Briones 99, who we can barely keep up with !

She enjoyed Her many Nieces and Nephews, and their Children, whom She adored with all her Heart. She had no grandchildren and found delight in spoiling the little ones ~ We all Loved and Cherished Her for Her gentle demeanor and Her desire to always gather us together as One Loving Family. She was always Happy with Her genuine bright smile to greet everyone and help anyone. Everyone was special to Her ~ Her Compassion preceded her always. She was soft spoken with words that exuded sweetness wrapped in patience.

We were truly Blessed to have had Her in our lives. She is Deeply missed and will always be fondly remembered as the Earth Angel She was. May She rest in the Arms of God ~ And, at long last, Kiss and Dance with Her Husband and Laugh with Her Family and Friends ~

Her Prayer to Fares, To Live & Linger in a Rapture of Blue with You, at the end of the day, with your lips close to mine~

To ensure the health and safety of our community, we are following all guidelines set by local, state and CDC officials. If you are planning on attending a service, please contact the funeral home in advance, so that we can plan accordingly.

Cemetery

Chapel of the Chimes - Hayward

32992 Mission Blvd.

Hayward, CA, 94544

Comments

“ Joe and Linda, Jenny will be always in my heart. She was a beautiful woman with a beautiful heart. My prayers go out to you.

Jill Demarco - April 12, 2020 at 02:37 PM