“ My grandma was the first angel in human form. She loved everybody regardless of their faults there sins. She also forgave everybody and believed everyone was deserving of love. She taught at the same church for 53 years. She left an impact on many lives. She's taught us so many wonderful things in life. Especially how to love and how to be a good parents. She's the one person that loved me unconditionally. She was there for me under every circumstance without fail and without needing to be asked. I'm going to miss her greatly. And if you asked her she would tell you I'm her favorite. But I think she told everybody that they were her favorite as well. She's seen many things in her lifetime. One can only imagine how she felt about change. Greatly saddened to see her go and I will love and miss her through this lifetime and next.
