“ My Precious Baby sister, Sandi.....You were always so full of life and always there to help anyone. You gave up your life to help take care of your son and then to take care of mom and dad, no matter how hard it was..But you never ever complained..You never ever asked for anything in return...You are my best friend and little sister. I enjoyed all the fun times and visits we had together.. You are greatly loved and missed so much.. You have touched a lot of lives and always welcoming people into your home. You never saw the bad side of people. I love and miss you so much.I remember when I picked you up last summer and brought you down here to have a make over, oh how Happy and alive you felt. You just giggled and giggles..You said you felt like a new person..I remember when we picked you up and took you to Niles for lunch and we surprised you and had Riki and Bonnie show up to see you.. You were so happy to see them and they were so happy to see their Auntie.. I still have the voicemails you left on my phone... So I can still hear your voice talking to me.....You are Forever in My Heart.. Till we meet again.. I love you Sandi.. From you big sister Debbie.....I am shoring some pictures of you that I will always cherish forever..
