“ My precious Zlato I fell in love with you the moment I met you and my love for you grew deeper as the years passed. In the Serbian language, the word zlato means gold. You asked me why I call you Zlato. I explained “because you mean more to me than all the gold in the world.” And there will never be another Zlato. Thank you for allowing me to share your life; if only it could have been longer. I will hold the memories in my mind and heart forever. Zbogom Anita Fawcett Grandmother
